

Notice of Privacy Practices

Georgia Department of Human Services

Date: December 01, 2023

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW HEALTH (MEDICAL) AND PERSONAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY.

The Department of Human Services (DHS) is an agency of the Executive Branch of Georgia government charged with the administration of numerous federal programs responsible for the storage, use and maintenance of medical and other confidential information. Federal and state laws establish strict requirements for these programs regarding the use and disclosure of confidential and protected information. DHS is required to comply with those laws as noted throughout this notice.

Protecting your privacy is very important to us. This Notice of Privacy Practices tells you our obligations, what information we collect, how the Department may use and disclose your information, and your rights.

OBLIGATIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES:

DHS is required by law to:

- Maintain the privacy of all your personal information;
- Give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices regarding health information about you; and
- Follow the terms of our notice currently in effect.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT:

We collect information necessary to verify identity, citizenship status, residency, income, and incarceration status. This information includes but is not limited to:

- Demographic data such as name, address, telephone number, email, and age;
- Income data such as tax filing status, marriage status, tax dependents, employer, and income;
- Citizenship and immigration data such as social security number, resident alien number, and incarceration status; and
- Medical information such as disabilities, any health insurance coverage, and other information necessary to facilitate your application for benefits/services.

HOW DHS MAY USE AND DISCLOSE PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION:

Personally Identifiable Information (PII) is collected, used, maintained, and shared by DHS. We collect PII during your application for benefits and/or services. The information provided is verified and confirmed through various sources. The following describes some ways DHS may use and disclose personally identifiable information that identifies you:

- For eligibility determination; and
- For enrollment in DHS programs;

The PII provided to DHS by clients is purposely used to determine eligibility, approve, deny, or renew public assistance benefits. The data is maintained for the purpose of renewing benefits by verifying the eligibility, support agency denial, and approval on renewal decisions. The data is shared to effectuate the purpose of the programs. We will not create, collect, use or disclose PII for any purposes that are not authorized by law.

HOW DHS MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION:

The following describes some ways DHS may use and disclose protected health information that identifies you (“Health Information”):

As Required by Law. DHS will disclose Health Information when required to do so by federal, state or local law.

For Treatment. DHS may use and disclose Health Information for your treatment and to provide you with treatment-related health care services. For example, DHS may disclose Health Information to doctors, nurses, technicians, or other personnel who are involved in your medical care and need the information to provide you with medical care.

For Payment. DHS may use and disclose Health Information so that DHS or others may bill and receive payment related to your care, an insurance company, or a third party for the treatment and services you received. For example, DHS may provide your health plan information so that treatment may be paid for.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. When appropriate, DHS may share Health Information with a person who is involved in your medical care or payment for your care, such as your family or a close friend. DHS also may disclose such information to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort.

Research. Under certain circumstances, DHS may use and disclose Health Information for research. Before DHS uses or discloses Health Information for research, the project will go through a special approval process. Even without special approval, DHS may permit researchers to look at records to help them identify patients who may be included in their research project or for other similar purposes, as long as they do not remove or take a copy of any Health Information.

Business Associates. DHS may disclose Health Information to our business associates that perform functions on our behalf or provide us with services if the information is necessary for such functions or services. For example, DHS may utilize the services of a separate entity to perform information technology services. All DHS business associates are obligated to protect the privacy of your information and are not allowed to use or disclose any information other than as specified in our contract.

Inmates or Individuals in Custody. If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, DHS may release Health Information to the correctional institution or law enforcement official. This release would be if necessary: (1) for the institution to provide you with health care; (2) to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others; or (3) the safety and security of the correctional institution.

USES AND DISCLOSURES THAT REQUIRE DHS TO PROVIDE YOU AN OPPORTUNITY TO OBJECT AND OPT OUT:

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. Unless you object, DHS may disclose to a member of your family, a relative, a close friend or any other person you identify, your Health Information that directly relates to that person's involvement in your health care. If you are unable to agree or object to such a disclosure, DHS may disclose such information as necessary if it is determined that it is in your best interest based on the professional judgment of DHS.

YOUR WRITTEN AUTHORIZATION IS REQUIRED FOR OTHER USES AND DISCLOSURES:

The following uses and disclosures of your Health Information will be made only with your written authorization:

1. Uses and disclosures of Health Information for marketing purposes; and
2. Disclosures that constitute a sale of your Health Information.

Your written permission is necessary before your health records are shared for any other reason not authorized by law. If you do provide DHS with a written authorization, you may revoke it at any time by submitting a written revocation to the Privacy Officer at the contact information below. Upon receipt, DHS will no longer disclose Health Information under the authorization. However, disclosures made in reliance upon your authorization before you revoked it will not be affected by the revocation.

YOUR RIGHTS:

You have the following rights regarding information DHS has about you:

Right to Inspect and Copy. You have a right to inspect and copy Health Information that may be used to make decisions about your care or payment for your care. This includes medical and billing records, other than psychotherapy notes. To inspect and copy this Health Information, you must make your request, in writing. DHS has up to 30 days to make your Health Information available to you and DHS may charge you a reasonable fee for the costs of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request. DHS may not charge you a fee if you need the information for a claim for benefits under the Social Security Act or any other state or federal needs-based benefit program. DHS may deny your request in certain limited circumstances. If DHS does deny your request, you have the right to have the denial reviewed by a licensed healthcare professional who was not directly involved in the denial of your request, and DHS will comply with the outcome of the review.

Right to an Electronic Copy of Electronic Medical Records. If your Health Information is maintained in an electronic format (known as an electronic medical record or an electronic health record), you have the right to request that an electronic copy of your record be given to you or transmitted to another individual or entity. DHS will make every effort to provide access to your Health Information in the form or format you request if it is readily producible in such form or format. If the Health Information is not readily producible in the form or format you request, your record will be provided in either our standard electronic format. If you do not want this form or format, a readable hard copy form will be provided. DHS may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for the labor associated with transmitting the electronic medical record.

Right to Get Notice of a Breach. You have the right to be notified upon a breach of any of your unsecured Protected Health Information (PHI) and PII.

Right to Amend. If you feel that DHS has incorrect or incomplete information about you, you may request DHS to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for our office. To make changes, you can go through your user portal, contact customer service for the program to which you are applying, contact your case manager, or make your request, in writing, to the below referenced Privacy Officer. We encourage you to review your information on a regular basis to make sure it is correct.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request a list of certain disclosures DHS made of Health Information for purposes other than treatment, payment and health care operations or for which you provided written authorization. To request an accounting of disclosures, you must make your request, in writing, to the Privacy Officer.

Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the Health Information DHS uses or disclosed for treatment, payment, or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the Health Information DHS discloses to someone involved in your care or the payment for your care, like a family member or friend. For example, you could ask that DHS not share information about a particular diagnosis or treatment with your spouse. To request a restriction, you must make your request, in writing. DHS is not required to agree to your request unless you are requesting DHS restrict the use and disclosure of your Health Information to a health plan for payment or health care operation purposes and such information you wish to restrict pertains solely to a health care item or service for which you have paid “out-of-pocket” in full. If DHS agrees, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you with emergency treatment.

Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that DHS communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that DHS only contact you by mail or at work. To request confidential communications, you must make your request, in writing. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted. DHS will accommodate reasonable requests.

Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You have the right to a paper copy of this notice. You may request a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice. To obtain a paper copy of this notice, please contact the Privacy Officer. You may also obtain a copy from the DHS website, on the Office of General Counsel homepage:

PROTECTIONS:

DHS is committed to protecting your personal information. PII and PHI is protected with reasonable operational, administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to ensure its confidentiality, integrity, and availability and to prevent unauthorized access, use, and/or disclosure of protected information. We do not sell any information given to us. We strictly adhere to a range of federal and state privacy and information security related standards designed to keep your information secure.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE:

DHS reserves the right to change this notice at any time. The new notice applies to information already obtained as well as any information received in the future. DHS will post a copy of the current notice at our office and on the website at <https://dhs.georgia.gov/organization/about/division-offices/office-general-counsel>. The notice will contain the effective date on the first page, in the top right-hand corner.
